

ABBEY
THEATRE
ST ALBANS

COMPANY OF TEN
PRESENTS

A drama about Shakespeare's last days

BINGO

By Edward Bond

22-30 MARCH 2019
Studio

Box Office: 01727 857861
www.abbeytheatre.org.uk

BINGO

Scenes of money and death
by Edward Bond

Bingo cunningly weaves together historical fact and drama. Subtitled Scenes of Money and Death, the play uses the last days of William Shakespeare to discuss art and capitalism, and accuses both of vile inhumanity.

'Bond's play has achieved the status of a modern classic,' said the Guardian. The Express called it 'tremendous... provocative and engaging'.

Company of Ten

Why did I come back here? I wanted to meet some God by the river. Ask him questions

Please note there will be no public performance on Monday 25 March 2019.

THE ABBEY THEATRE

Close to St Albans city centre, with adjacent parking, a licensed bar and a warm welcoming environment, the Abbey Theatre is run to professional standards by members of the Company of Ten. With our comfortable Main Theatre and intimate Studio, it's a great place for high-quality, affordable entertainment.

COMING SOON

April Bugsy Malone

By Alan Parker, words and music by Paul Williams (SAYMT)

May Things I Know to be True

By Andrew Bovell

June Bent

By Martin Sherman