

I Can Do That: Teaching & Presenting!

A 2 day workshop to help you plan and deliver teaching sessions

15th & 16th May 2018 09:30-16:30

Venue: Stanborough Centre, Garston, Watford WD25 9JL

The Hospice
of st francis

Facilitated by:

Claire Nicell, Lecturer Practitioner

Antonia Dean, Lecturer Practitioner

Target Audience:

Staff from all settings who want to learn more about planning and delivering a teaching session.

Places are limited to 10 so early booking is advised

Content:

Learners will gain an understanding of teaching methods and education theories. Recognise and make the most of learning styles, set realistic aims, objectives and lesson plans with ideas for promoting and evaluating your sessions. Learning will be embedded through videoed micro teaches which will be well supported by the facilitators.

Additional information:

Please note you will be asked to complete a pre and post course confidence questionnaire as well as do a 10 minute videoed micro teaching on day 1 and day 2. You don't have to prepare for either of these micro teaches, since there is a timetabled working lunch in which you can do so, but it is a good idea to know your topics in advance. Places will be confirmed individually.
